DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIP ENDS BENEFIT AID – Endowed
The purpose of this Benefit Aid is to provide you with specific details about the action you may need to take to update your benefits due to your domestic partnership ending. You have 60 days from the date your domestic partnership ends to remove your partner and or child(ren), to enroll in or make changes to endowed health, dental, and Group Universal Life (GUL) or the Legal Plan Insurance. If you were not previously enrolled in a health and/or dental plan, you must complete a paper enrollment form to do so. You must provide documentation to complete the health and dental plan enrollment.

Key Points
• You have 60 days from the date of your domestic partnership ends to enroll or add dependents not previously covered under the endowed health and dental plans. You must provide documentation to complete the enrollment.
• Health Insurance effective date: If you make a change to your coverage due to a qualifying event and it falls within a pay period, the effective date is the qualifying event date and the deduction date is the first day of the pay period following the qualifying event. If the qualifying event falls on the first day of a pay period, the effective date is the qualifying event date and deduction date is the first day of the pay period following the qualifying event.
• Dental Plan effective date: If you experience a qualifying event and make a change to your coverage that falls within a pay period, the effective date of coverage and the deduction date for your dental plan is the first day of the pay period following your date of hire. If the qualifying event falls on the first day of a pay period, the effective date of coverage and the deduction date is the same as the qualifying event.
• You have 60 days from the date your partnership ends to enroll in or cancel coverage in the Legal Plan Insurance.
• You are also eligible to enroll or change Personal Accident Insurance (PAI), 529 College Savings, Auto/Home/Pet Insurance, Health Savings Account (HSA), Tax Deferred Annuity (TDA), the 457(b) Plan and consider updating your beneficiaries.
• If you need further information please see the Endowed Domestic Partnership Ends Benefit Aid. You may also contact Benefit Services at (607) 255-3936 or by email at benefits@cornell.edu.

Required Documentation

This documentation is required for health AND dental enrollments as noted below:

- Copy of social security card (or ITIN-Individual Taxpayer Identification Number for non-US citizens) for all covered dependents, including yourself, spouse/domestic partner if adding to the coverage
- Copy of marriage certificate if enrolling a spouse.
- Copy of birth certificate (or Visa/Passport accepted for non-US citizens) for child(ren), if adding to coverage
- Statement of Termination of Domestic Partnership to remove domestic partner (applies to health and dental coverage)

WHAT DO I NEED TO REMOVE MY DOMESTIC PARTNER?

You complete the "Statement of Domestic Partnership Termination" to remove your ex-domestic partner from your endowed health and/or dental plan. You have 60 days from the date of the termination of the domestic partnership. Timely removal will also insure they receive a COBRA Notice from the Aetna, the COBRA Administrator.

HOW DO I OBTAIN A SUMMARY OF BENEFITS AND COVERAGE (SBC)?

The Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC) is a standardized comparison document that is required by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA). All insurance plans are required to produce SBCs based on a uniform template.

The purpose of an SBC is to give people straightforward information about a health insurance plan’s benefits. It is meant to help consumers compare plans and make appropriate coverage decisions. There are also cost sharing examples to assist in your understanding of plan benefits. One example is for the delivery of a baby and a second on managing diabetes. You may want to review your beneficiary designations. You can access the Cigna Trusted Advisor to make these changes via Workday>Benefits>Life Insurance – active.

Health Savings Account (HSA)

You are no longer able to cover your domestic partner on your Aetna Health Savings Account. When you remove your domestic partner from your Aetna Health Savings Account, he/she will no longer be covered as a dependent. If your domestic partner is not a dependent according to the IRS tax code, you are not able to reimburse the domestic partner’s health care expenses from your own Health Savings Account without being subject to income tax penalties. You domestic partner should contact Aetna/JP Morgan Chase if he or she has opened up an unaffiliated account and has questions.

Note: The domestic partner is able to contribute to their own individual Health Savings Account directly through Aetna/JP Morgan Chase for up to the family maximum of $6,250 for 2012. You are able to contribute up to the family maximum of $6,250 for 2012. You may enroll or change your contribution to the Health Savings Account at any time. HSA includes a health savings account and a high deductible health plan administered by Aetna. If you are not enrolled and want to start making contributions, then you need to elect the amount of your contribution. Contributions are subject to IRS limits and may change each calendar year. (This is not the same as the Cornell Flexible Spending Accounts and requires enrollment in the Aetna Health Saving Account health insurance plan).
