LEGAL SEPARATION BENEFIT AID – Endowed

The purpose of this Benefit Aid is to provide you with specific details about the action you may need to take to update your benefits due to your legal separation. You are able to continue to cover your legally separated spouse under your health and dental plan(s) or you can remove them. You have 60 days from the date of the legal separation to remove your spouse, to enroll in or make changes to endowed health, dental, Flexible Spending Accounts, Legal Plan Insurance and Group Universal Life (GUL) Insurance. If you were not previously enrolled in a health and/or dental plan, you must complete a paper enrollment form: Health and Dental forms. You must provide documentation to complete the health/dental enrollment.

Key Points

- You can continue to cover your spouse or you can remove the spouse within 60 days from the date of the legal separation. You can also enroll or add dependents not previously covered under the endowed health and dental plans, refer to section labeled What Do I Need to do to Enroll? in the Endowed Legal Separation Benefit Aid.
- Health Insurance effective date: If you make a change to your coverage due to a qualifying event and it falls within a pay period, the effective date is the qualifying event date and the deduction date is the first day of the pay period following the qualifying event. If the qualifying event falls on the first day of a pay period, the effective date is the qualifying event date and deduction date is the first day of the pay period following the qualifying event.
- Dental Plan effective date: If you experience a qualifying event and make a change to your coverage that falls within a pay period, the effective date of coverage and the deduction date for your dental plan is the first day of the pay period following your date of hire. If the qualifying event falls on the first day of a pay period, the effective date of coverage and the deduction date is the same as the qualifying event.
- You may be able to enroll or change coverage levels for Flexible Spending Accounts and Group Universal Life (GUL) within 60 days.
- You have 60 days from the date of our legal separation to enroll in or cancel coverage in the Legal Plan Insurance.
- You are also eligible to enroll or change Personal Accident Insurance (PAI), Health Savings Account (HSA), NY 529 College Savings, Auto/Home/Pet Insurance, the Tax Deferred Annuity Plan (TDA), the 457(b) Plan and/or consider updating your beneficiaries.

WHAT IS THE DUAL ELIGIBILITY RATE?
The Dual Eligibility Category is available to an endowed staff or faculty member with a dependent child(ren) whose spouse or domestic partner is also a benefits eligible staff or faculty member in an endowed unit of Cornell University. When you remove your spouse from your health coverage due to a legal separation, you are no longer eligible for the dual eligibility health rate. For more information on the Endowed Health Rates, please refer to the following link: https://hr.cornell.edu/benefits/health

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO TO REMOVE MY LEGALLY SEPARATED SPOUSE?
You must include the front and back page of the legal separation, in order to remove your spouse from your endowed health and/or dental plan. You have 60 days from the date of the legal separation to remove your spouse. Timely removal will also insure he/she receives a COBRA Notice from the Aetna, the COBRA Administrator.

HOW DO I OBTAIN A SUMMARY OF BENEFITS AND COVERAGE (SBC)?
The Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC) is a standardized comparison document that is required by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA). All insurance plans are required to produce SBCs based on a uniform template.
The purpose of an SBC is to give people straightforward information about a health insurance plan’s benefits. It is meant to help consumers compare plans and make appropriate coverage decisions. There are also cost sharing examples to assist in your understanding of plan benefits. One example is for the delivery of a baby and a second on managing diabetes. https://hr.cornell.edu/benefits/health/end_sbc.html

Flexible Spending Account: Medical Care
The medical care account is money that you set aside on a pre-tax basis for medical expenses not covered by health, dental and vision insurance for family members who are your tax dependents.

- You have 60 days from the date of legal separation to stop or decrease the annual amount in an existing account (decrease in annual amount cannot be less than current year-to-date contribution amount). You may also enroll or increase the annual amount in an existing account if your spouse covered your medical expenses under his/her account. The change that you make to the account must be consistent with the qualifying event.
- If you are not currently enrolled, the effective date is the date of legal separation; if you are making changes to an existing account, the original effective date will remain in effect.
- The IRS does not recognize same-sex or domestic partners as tax dependents so changes to an FSA or enrollment in an FSA account, do not apply.
- If the enrollment or the change to the account will occur between October and December, please contact Benefit Services at (607) 255-3936 or via email at benefits@cornell.edu for advice on how to proceed with enrollment.

GENERAL PLAN INFORMATION
- The maximum annual amount that you can set aside on a pre-tax basis is $2,550.
- You must enroll each year; enrollment does not continue from year to year.
- This is a use-it-or-lose–it account – this means that if you do not use the money in your account during the plan year that you lose it.
- Additional information and plan booklet can be found at: https://hr.cornell.edu/benefits/fsa.html

Flexible Spending Account: Dependent Care
The dependent care account is money that you set aside on a pre-tax basis for day care expenses for child(ren) under the age of 13 who are your tax dependents.

- You have 60 days from the date of legal separation to enroll, increase, decrease or stop the annual amount in an existing account (decrease in annual amount cannot be less than current year-to-date contribution amount).
- The child(ren) must be your tax dependent in order to use the Flexible Spending Dependent Care Account. You must include copies of the pages of the legal separation that show that you are the parent claiming the child(ren) on your income taxes.
• If you are not currently enrolled, the effective date is the date of legal separation; if you are making changes to an existing account, the original effective date will remain in effect.
• If the enrollment or the change to the account will occur between October and December, please contact Benefit Services at (607) 255-3936 or via email at benefits@cornell.edu for advice on how to proceed with enrollment.

GENERAL PLAN INFORMATION
• The maximum annual amount that you can set aside on a pre-tax basis is $5,000.
• If you have received a child care grant, you must take the grant amount into consideration when you enroll (e.g., $4,000 grant award and your payroll contributions of $1,000 must not exceed $5,000 annual dependent care maximum).
• Cornell University’s Child Care Grant Program helps faculty and staff pay for child care expenses by granting awards of up to $5,000 a year, tax-free. Child Care Grant information can be found at: https://hr.cornell.edu/life/support/child_care_grant.html
• You must enroll each year; enrollment does not continue from year to year.
• This is a use-it-or-lose–it account – this means that if you do not use the money in your account during the plan year that you lose it.
• Additional information and plan booklet can be found at: https://hr.cornell.edu/benefits/fsa.html

Group Universal Life
• You are able to increase or decrease your GUL coverage due to the legal separation;
• A legal separation is considered a Life Status Change which allows you to enroll or increase your GUL coverage by one times your salary, up to $300,000, not to exceed the plan maximum of $2,000,000, without medical underwriting. If you are both employees, each of you may increase your salary. This must be done within 60 days of the date of the legal separation;
• If both are employees and one has covered the other as a spouse, the spouse coverage would need to be cancelled by the employee and the spouse would need to apply for his/her own coverage as an employee;
• You may choose not to cancel the spousal coverage and continue to own the policy. If you remarry, CIGNA would direct bill for the ex-spouse and then you would have payroll deduction for the new spouse;
• You may increase or decrease your amount of coverage at any time.
• You may need to review your beneficiary designations. You can access the Cigna Trusted Advisor to make these changes via Workday>Benefits>Life Insurance – active.

Legal Plan Insurance
• Enrollment in the Legal Plan provides affordable, flexible legal coverage associated with the cost of attorney fees. Coverage includes spouses/domestic partners and eligible dependents. To enroll via Workday>Benefits>Legal Plan Insurance.
• Should you wish to cancel this coverage, please contact Mercer at 1-800-247-4184.

Auto/Home/Pet Insurance
If you have coverage through Mercer Voluntary Benefits, you may want to contact them to adjust your policy. You can access the Mercer website to make these changes via Workday>Benefits>Auto/home/pet insurance.

Basic Life Insurance Beneficiaries
You may need to review your beneficiary designations. The Basic Life Change of Beneficiary Form can be found online. You can access the Cigna Trusted Advisor to make these changes via Workday>Benefits>Life Insurance – active.

Health Savings Account (HSA)
You may enroll or change your contribution to the Health Savings Account at any time. The HSA includes a health savings account and a high deductible health plan administered by Aetna. You are able to change your contributions to the health savings account at any time. (This is not the same as Cornell Flexible Spending Accounts and requires enrollment in the Health Savings Account Health Insurance Plan).
https://www.hr.cornell.edu/benefits/health

New York’s 529 College Savings Program
You may open a College Savings Program for your dependent children at any time. Payroll deduction for this plan is also available via Workday>Benefits>New York’s 529 College Savings Program. Once you’ve enrolled, use the Payroll Electronic Deposit Authorization Form to request payroll deduction:
https://www.hr.cornell.edu/benefits/education/college_savings.html

Personal Accident Insurance (PAI)
• You may enroll or change your Personal Accident Insurance at any time.
• You may need to review your beneficiary designations.
• You can access the Cigna Trusted Advisor to make these changes via Workday>Benefits>Personal Accident Insurance.
